MINISTRY OF LAW AND JUSTICE
(Legislative Department)
NOTIFICATION
New Delhi, the 10th November, 2003

S.O.1283 (E):- In exercise of the powers conferred by section 169 of the Representation of the People Act, 1951 (43 of 1951), the Central Government, after consulting the Election Commission, makes the following rules further to amend the Conduct of Elections Rules, 1961, namely:

1. (1) These rules may be called the Conduct of Elections (Third Amendment) Rules, 2003.
   (2) They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the Official Gazette.
2. In the Conduct of Elections Rules, 1961 (hereinafter referred to as the said rules), after Part VII, the following Part shall be inserted, namely:

'PART VIIA

Contributions report, equitable sharing of time on electronic media and material to be supplied to recognized political parties

85A. Definitions:- In this Part, unless the context otherwise requires,-

(a) "Cable television network" and "cable operator" have the meanings respectively assigned to them in clause (b) of Explanation to section 39A;

(b) "electronic media" has the meaning assigned to it in clause (a) of Explanation to section 39A;

(c) "political party" has the meaning assigned to it in clause (f) of sub-section (1) of section 2;

(d) "recognized political party" has the meaning assigned to it in the Election Symbols (Reservation and Allotment) Order, 1968.

85B. Form of contributions report.- The report for a financial year under sub-section (1) of section 29C shall be submitted in Form 24A by the treasurer of a political party or any other person authorised by the political party in this behalf, before the due date for furnishing a return of its income of that financial year under section 139 of the Income-tax Act, 1961 (43 of 1961), to the Election Commission.

85C. Allocation of equitable sharing of time on electronic media:- (1) The Election Commission shall, for the purposes of allocating equitable sharing of time on the cable television network and other electronic media under sub-section (1) of section 39A, categorise the cable television networks and electronic media into the two separate categories that is to say one category which is owned or controlled or financed wholly or substantially by funds provided to them by the Central Government and the other which is not owned or controlled or financed wholly or substantially by funds provided to them by the Central Government.

(2) For allocating equitable sharing of time on the cable television network and other electronic media owned or controlled or financed wholly or substantially by funds provided to them by the Central Government referred to in sub-rule (1), the Election Commission shall determine, in consultation with the Ministry of the Government of India dealing with the concerned subject, the maximum time period available on such cable television network and other electronic media and allocate such time period proportionately among the recognized political parties contesting the election on the basis of their past performances for the purposes of displaying or propagating any election matter or to address public in connection with the election under sub-section (1) of section 39A.

(3) For the purposes of this rule, "past performance of a recognized political party" shall be calculated,-

(i) in relation to the election to fill a seat or seats in the House of the People, on the basis of the percentage of votes cast in the last preceding general election in favour of that recognized political party with reference to the total votes cast in that general election, to fill the seats in that House;

(ii) in relation to the election to fill a seat or seats in the Legislative Assembly of a State (except the State of Jammu and Kashmir), on the basis of the percentage of the votes cast in the last preceding general election in favour of that recognized political party with reference to the total votes cast in that general election, to fill the seats in that Assembly.

85D. Supply of material by the Government:- The Central Government shall, at the time of any general election to be held for the purposes of constituting the House of the People or the Legislative Assembly of a State provide to the Election Commission such number of copies of electoral roll, as finally published under the Representation of the People Act, 1950 (43 of 1950), as the Election Commission may require for supplying the same free of cost to the candidate of recognized political parties through such officers as may be specified by the Election Commission and such officer shall act in accordance with such general or special directions as may be issued by the Election Commission in this behalf.

3. After Form 24 appended to the said rules, the following Form shall be inserted, namely:

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) read with clause (d) of sub-section (2) of section 50 of the Control of National Highways (Land and Traffic) Act, 2002 (13 of 2003), the Central Government hereby makes the following rules, namely:

1. Short title, commencement and application:- (1) These rules may be called the National Highways Tribunal (Procedure for investigation of misbehavior or incapacity of Presiding Officer) Rules, 2003.

(2) They shall come into force on the date on which the Act comes into force.

(3) These rules shall be applicable to every Presiding Officer of the National Highways Tribunal established under the Act.

2. Definitions-: In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires,-

(a) "Act" means the Control of National Highways (Land and Traffic) Act, 2002 (13 of 2003);

(b) "Tribunal" means the National Highways Tribunal established under sub-section (1) of section 5 of the Act;

(c) "Presiding Officer" means a person appointed as Presiding Officer of the Tribunal under sub-section (1) of section 6 of the Act;

(d) words and expressions used and not defined in these rules but defined in the Act shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in the Act.

3. Committee for investigation of complaints:- (1) If a written complaint, alleging any definite charges of misbehaviour or incapacity to perform the functions of the office in respect of a Presiding Officer, is received by the Central Government, it shall make preliminary scrutiny of such complaint.

(2) If, on preliminary scrutiny, the President considers it necessary to investigate into the allegation, it shall place the complaint together with supporting material as may be available, before a Committee consisting of the following persons to investigate the charges of allegations made in the complaint.

(i)	Secretary (Coordination and Public Grievances), Cabinet Secretariat.	-	Chairman
(ii)	Secretary, Ministry of Road Transport and Highways.	-	Member
(iii)	Secretary, Department of Legal Affairs, Ministry of Law and Justice	-	Member

(3) The Committee shall devise its own procedure and method of investigation which may include recording of evidence of the complainant and collection of material relevant to the inquiry which may be conducted by a Judge of the High Court under these rules.

(4) The Committee shall submit its findings to the President as early as possible within a period that may be specified by the President in this behalf.

4. Judge to conduct inquiry- (1) If the President is of the opinion that there are reasonable grounds for making an inquiry into the truth of any imputation of misbehaviour or incapacity of a Presiding Officer, he shall make a reference to the Chief Justice of India requesting him to nominate a Judge of High Court to conduct the inquiry.

(2) The President shall, by order, appoint the Judge of a High court nominated by the Chief Justice of India (hereinafter in these rules referred to as Judge) for the purpose of conducting the inquiry.

(3) Notice of appointment of a Judge under sub-rule (2) shall be given to the Presiding Officer concerned.

(4) The President shall forward to the Judge a copy of-

(a) the articles of charges against the Presiding Officer concerned and the statement of imputation;

(b) the statement of witnesses, if any; and

(c) material documents relevant to the inquiry.

(5) The Judge shall complete the inquiry within such time or further time as may be specified by the President.

(6) The Presiding Officer concerned shall be given a reasonable opportunity of presenting a written statement of defence within such time as may be specified in this behalf by the Judge.

(7) Where it is alleged that the Presiding Officer concerned is unable to discharge the duties of his office efficiently due to any physical or mental incapacity and the allegation is denied, the Judge may arrange for the medical examination of the Presiding Officer by such Medical Board as may be appointed for the purpose by the President and the Presiding Officer concerned shall submit himself to such medical examination within the time specified in this behalf by the Judge.

(8) The Medical Board shall undertake such medical examination of the Presiding Officer as may be considered necessary and submit a report to the Judge stating therein whether the incapacity is such as to render the Presiding Officer unfit to continue in office.

(9) If the Presiding Officer refuses to undergo such medical examination as considered necessary by the Medical Board, the Board shall submit a report to the Judge stating therein the examination which the Presiding Officer has refused to undergo, and the Judge may, on receipt of such report, presume that the Presiding Officer suffers from such physical or mental incapacity as is alleged in the complaint.

(10) The Judge may, after considering the written statement of the Presiding Officer and the Medical Report, if any, amend the charges referred to in clause (a) of sub-rule (4) and in such a case, the Presiding Officer shall be given a reasonable opportunity of presenting a fresh written statement of defence.

(11) The Central Government shall appoint an officer of that Government or an advocate to present the case against the Presiding Officer.

(12) Where the Central Government has appointed an advocate to present its case before the Judge, the Presiding Officer concerned shall also be allowed to present his case by an advocate chosen by him.

5. Application of the Departmental Inquiries (Enforcement of Witness and Production of Documents) Act, 1972 to inquiries under these rules:- The provisions of the Departmental Inquiries (Enforcement of Witness and Production of Documents) Act, 1972 (18 of 1972), shall apply to the inquiries made under these rules as they apply to departmental inquiries.

6. Powers of the Judge:- The Judge shall not be bound by the procedure laid down by the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (5 of 1908) but shall be guided by the principles of natural justice and shall have power to regulate his own procedure including the fixing of places and times of the inquiry.

7. Suspension of Presidng Officer:- Notwithstanding anything contained in rule 4 and without prejudice to any action being taken in accordance with the said rule, the President, Keeping in view the gravity of charges may suspend the Presiding Officer against whom a complaint is under investigation or inquiry.

8. Subsistence allowance:- The payment of subsistence allowance to a Presiding Officer under suspension shall be regulated in accordance with the rules and orders for the time being applicable to an officer of the Government of India drawing an equivalent pay.

9. Inquiry Report:- After the conclusion of the investigation, the Judge shall submit his report to the President stating therein his findings and the reasons therefor on each of the articles of charges separately with such observations on the whole case as he thinks fit.
